Founded in 1984 by Moira North, Ice Theatre of New York has changed the face of figure skating by creating works that integrate the sensibilities of contemporary dance, music and art. Through its performances in both traditional and alternative venues, ITNY presents on-ice dances that challenge the perceptions and conventional definitions of figure skating. ITNY was the first ice dance company to receive dance program funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. In addition to building and performing works of artistic merit, ITNY also reaches out to the next generation of skaters and audiences through its exemplary education, community outreach and training programs.

As the company begins its new season, ITNY will continue its tradition of collaborating with choreographers from both the dance and skating worlds, as well as exploring relationships with artists from theatre, music and new media disciplines. 2011-2012 season highlights include: ITNY's 2011 Benefit Gala and Performance honoring Johnny Weir (Mon, Oct 24), continued collaborations with Improv Everywhere, Julliard Dance Program and Fashion Week, free performances as part of the City Skate Concert Series at Rockefeller Center, Bryant Park and Queens's World Ice Arena; New Works & Young Artists Series at Riverbank State Park in Manhattan, City Ice Pavilion and World Ice Arena in Queens to serve city school children; special holiday performances at Rockefeller Center, Riverbank State Park, Bryant Park, and Chelsea Piers, and the Winter Festival in Milford, PA. <http://www.icetheatre.org>.

“ Since its establishment in 1984, the Ice Theatre of New York has combined the best of ice skating, dance and theater to create cutting edge performances that represent the very best New York's creative community has to offer. “

— Mayor Michael Bloomberg

Progress — and Fits and Starts — on Immigration

BY PAUL SCHINDLER

In a dizzying — and not fully transparent — series of developments this past week, the prospects for married same-sex bi-national couples hoping to stay in the US showed improvement, though how far-reaching the gains are remains uncertain as of press time.

In what appears to be the first such action of its type, an Immigration Judge in Manhattan, who works under the Justice Department, on March 22 adjourned deportation proceedings for the Argentine lesbian spouse of an American citizen to allow the couple to proceed with their application to have their marriage recognized for purposes of federal immigration law.

Also last week, Newsweek reported that the heads of two district offices, in Baltimore and Washington, DC, of the US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) — which is part of the Department of Homeland Security — had separately stated publicly they have put on hold the processing of any applications for spousal recognition or green cards from married same-sex couples. Such applications have routinely been denied in the past, so by putting them down in "abeyance," USCIS would be strengthening the arguments a married same-sex

ELIZABETH TAYLOR AND AMAR FOUNDER DR. MATHILDE KIRM AT A 1985 AIDS FUNDRAISER

Elizabeth Taylor, AIDS Pioneer, 1932-2011

BY PAUL SCHINDLER

Elizabeth Taylor — who for a majority of Americans was a towering international film star and celebrity for their entire life — will likely be remembered most fondly in the LGBTQ community for her pioneering work in alerting the nation and the world to the urgency of the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

According to amfAR, the Foundation for AIDS Research, where Taylor served as the founding chair, the film star first became involved in HIV advocacy in December 1984, when she signed on as a major donor to AIDS Project Los

Michael Lucas Says LGBTQ Center Pressed Jewish Group to Move Meeting

BY LUNCAN OSBORNE

Following his success at getting a group opposed to Israeli government policies toward Palestinians banned from New York City's Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Community Center, porn impresario Michael Lucas is continuing to challenge the Center after a group he was scheduled to address there moved its meeting to his home.

"From this email it is very clear that the Center is lying when saying that they did not interfere by pressuring GLYDSA to disinvite me," Lucas wrote in a March 25 email to Gay City News. "They absolutely did. This was the reason why GLYDSA moved their event."

GLYDSA, the Gay and Lesbian Yeshiva Day School Alumni Association, an Orthodox Jewish group, had invited Lucas to its March 24 meeting to discuss how he "worked hard this past month to thwart the Israeli Apartheid Week" activities from taking place at the LGBTQ Center.

While not alone, Lucas was the most visible opponent of allowing Siegbusters, the group that was banned, to hold a March 5 party at the Center.
